

Did ٱ really Love Us, Even HE Destroyed the World?

If ٱ is so loving compassionate Creator ONE who created the heavens and earth and who HE loves us, there is no need for HIM to destroy the world if HE loves us. By killing all the people on earth during Noah's day. HE is not that kind of love, like how I wouldn't do that. That is the reason why I no longer believe in ٱ existence. Anyone who has said the same thing should be prudent for that kind of talk or statement. Questioning or expecting from ٱ, because HE is all-powerful and the only Creator ONE who made us. HE is more than just a Father to us. HE is beyond our understanding.

Even if we think we're not, beginners still need to think more than twice about that. Because there is always a chance that we may be wrong about it. If any of us have thought about that and did not take a lot of patience and time to do the investigation homework, will end up falling. Because there is more to dig deeper to find the clear truth. Since our ancestors damaged the scripture books many times. By adding, removing, changing, and translating the scripture books into our own language(s), instead of ٱ's language which HE has spoken to Adam, Abraham, Jacob (Israel), and Moses. From the original written tongue, now it is a corrupted language. That is why we must dig deeper to find the correct answers.

According to this topic, it's not even difficult to find the answer. Because this one is very easy to find the answers. Those who have spread false messages about YHWH do not exist because of the great flood will be so embarrassed. We all make a mistake in our lives, and we learn by that mistake so that we won't make the same mistake again.

So, since we already know the first reason why ٱ destroyed the world during Noah's day. From reading Genesis chapters 6 to 9. It explains the reasons behind it, their wickedness, and what they've in mind against YAH. They said something so bad. They didn't respect ٱ and HIS way of life on earth. They act like they are above YAH. The same thing is explained in the Book of Job chapter 22.

"Would you keep the old path that the wicked have trod? They were carried off before their time, their world washed away by a flood. They said to ٱ, 'Leave us alone! what can ٱ do to us?' Yet it was HE who filled their houses with all good things...". Job 22:15-18

Oh boy, what they have said or think that way, put their own risk in their life for saying that. They think they are better than YHWH. They have so much pride in them and sin against YHWH. When ٱ saw Noah, HE saw him as a righteous man and HE had to save him and his family. Because the world was already filled with evil that ٱ did not want it to ruin the life of Noah and his family. That is why HE saved only them, 8 people, and all the list of animals. By removing all the evil one and allowing Noah's family to continue to live on. Can we imagine if we allow the bad virus to continue to spread, will all continue to live well? The answer is NO.

Since ﷻ allows us to make choices, the wrong or the right choices. Yet, HE does expect us to choose the right path, the right choices. We can make our own decisions while we're living, but again, there are only two paths of choice to make that decision. To live well or to fall to death. Because ﷻ is not our puppet Master. What's more, the earth belongs to ﷻ, we don't own it, and we alone do not have the supreme authority to rule the world. If we don't respect the House rules, we would consider being kicked out of the house, the same ideal for how we live on earth. ﷻ created this world and ruled how to live well. When the wickets do not respect the way of life on earth, it hurts other people who aren't the wickets. While the righteous are doing their best to stay humble and respect their choice, ﷻ will deal with them eventually. That is why ﷻ put out of their misery after they've said something like that "leave me alone", this they ignore ﷻ.

"Therefore, O house of Israel, I will judge you, each one according to his ways—declares by the Supreme ONE. Repent and turn from all your offenses, so sin will not be your downfall. Rid yourselves of all the offenses you have committed, and get a new heart and a new spirit. Why will you die, O house of Yisrael? For I take no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares by your Creator Father. Repent and live!" - Ezekiel 18:30-32

"The wicked shall turn back to Sheol (grave/dust), and all the peoples that forget ﷻ" - Psalm 9:17
