

אֲנִי is not a MAN, never had!

Everyone must know and clearly understand that אֲנִי אֲנִי (I AM who I AM) is mainly NOT a man as human, flesh & blood. HE never had. The TORAH of Numbers Chapter 23, verse 19 explained this: "אֲנִי (I AM) is NOT a HUMAN, that HE should lie, NOT a HUMAN being, that HE should change HIS mind. Does HE speak and then not act? Does HE promise and not fulfill"? Another message also reminds us of this in the book of Hosea 11:9.

Do not, I mean DO NOT fall in for the New Testament doctrine Bible that speaks about Jesus Christ (or Yeshua nor YahuSha, the Messiah). The Son of God who came down in the flesh according to the Bible of John 1:14, 1st John 4:2-3, & John 6:38. We are being told that he was sent here on earth, to die for us, by saving us from eternal death according to John 3:16-17, Romans 5:8, & Hebrews 9:15.

This included how Jesus claimed that he and the Father are one according to John 10:30. This is what causes many people confusion and to believe that he is the same being as the Father, the Creator Almighty ONE. As the Redeemer, first and the last according to Revelation 1:17-18.

This is blasphemy for how the New Testament Bible speaks of this. This cannot be true because again, אֲנִי is merely not a man in the flesh. And because the book of Psalm 14:3 explains that we cannot trust in princes, in human beings, WHO CANNOT SAVE us.

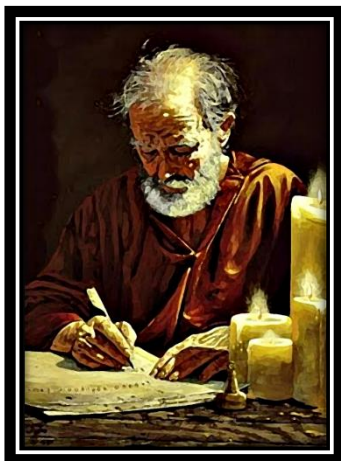

The reason for this is אֲנִי did NOT send anyone to die for a man's sins according to how Deuteronomy 24:16 describes:

"Fathers are not to be put to death for children, and CHILDREN ARE NOT TO BE PUT TO DEATH FOR FATHERS—each one is to be put to death for his own sins."

As we can see, this scripture verse clearly explains why ٱلله did NOT send Jesus or anyone to die for him or us. This is why the book of Genesis 9:6 says the one who sheds human blood, by a human will his blood be shed, for in ٱلله image He made humanity. ٱلله wouldn't allow anyone to kill someone for no good reason to die. HE merely does not want anyone to sacrifice for anyone. And what's more, one of the Commandments laws explains to us that whoever kills someone must be put to death (Ex 20:13), that law also reminds us not to murder. ٱلله would not create a plan to change and send someone to die for a men's sins, otherwise it would alter, it would make HIM a liar for having Jesus to be murdered by those people who wanted him be kill, by nailed him on the cross. ٱلله hate human sacrifice and people have been doing that since ancient and even today.

Look at this lesson why ٱلله stop Abraham before he nearly killed his son Isaac, after ٱلله did command him to sacrifice his son Isaac on an altar as a burnt offering? Why do we think HE stops him? After HE commented Abraham to sacrifice his son Isaac? ٱلله stop him because it wasn't HIS goal to murder the humanity HE made and cared for; it was merely a test for Abraham. Abraham passed the test because he passed the obedience test, by obeying HIS commands. Abraham would still pass the test even if he did murder his son because he listened and obeyed HIS commanded.

Again, ٱلله stopped him, because ٱلله did not desire human sacrifice and it is forbidden. Shedding the human's blood is an abomination in HIS eyes (Deuteronomy 12:30-31). Psalm 106:37-38 is another passage verses of the law HE also mentioned why HE wouldn't change HIS mind about HIS creation and HIS plan, etc.

So, this so-called Jesus Christ is merely just a fairy tale superhero character man, created by the Greek/Roman cult, a custom that they've created their own false royal descendant's leader to rule over the Israelites' lands for years. They have been stealing ٱلله's teaching by twisting into a new way. By copycat and borrowing some script from the famous ancient Greece's poetry. Like how Paul has the Euripides script in the New Testament books, many overlook this without doing their deep homework by checking whether that true or not. You can see this example which Bro. Pouliot did his homework at

The Ancient Romans are known for not only adopting a large amount of Greek culture via their religion but also their philosophy, having translated much of the original philosophical transcriptions from Greek to Latin in order to preserve them. One of the most obvious aspects of the Greek culture that the Romans appropriated was their religion, adopting and renaming many of the Hellenic gods and keeping the many myths surrounding them. Along with this, the Romans adopted Greek architectural and artistic styling. From everything the Romans adopted from the Greek, arguably the most important and influential aspect they derived from the Greek were their philosophies. The Platonic Academy, its Sceptics and Platonists, the Cynics, the Stoics, the Epicureans and even the Pythagoreans found their ways into the Roman empire. It is within the Roman civilization that these philosophies discovered an entirely new form of intellectual exposure.

Now, there are reasons why the Israelites lost their lands more than once, twice, or three times, and even lost the holy temple which was destroyed by the Roman Empire. It's because the Israelites have sinned, and rebelled against  $\Psi$ . This is why  $\Psi$  allowed the foreigners overtake them, the lands, and destroyed the temple.

We must not forget the law, HIS Commandments, that warned us, not to sin against HIS law and break HIS Covenants with us, otherwise, we will fall and could be blotted out from HIS book. In the TANAKH (Old Testament), there are references to  $\Psi$  blotting out sins. For instance, in Exodus 32:33,  $\Psi$  replied to Moses, saying:

“Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot out of My book”

This emphasizes that sinning against  $\Psi$  leads to being blotted out from HIS book. Similarly, Psalms 69:28 speaks of being blotted out of the Book of the Living due to sin. The act of blotting out sins signifies the absolute contradiction between evil and good.

This is why NO one, not even Christ Jesus merits cannot avail a sinner who does not turn away from their sin. Therefore, according to the TANAKH, it is indeed only  $\Psi$  who can blot out transgressions and remember sins no more.

$\Psi$  is the only ONE, the ONLY Sovereign Almighty ONE, NO ONE ELSE BESIDE LIKE HIM.  $\Psi$  is the ONLY light of the world, who is telling us that HE ALONE, the only WORD who spoken. THERE IS NONE ELSE LIKE HIM. This is because He is the Light and the word of the world (Genesis 1:3, Job 33:28-30, Psalm 27:1).

What's more,  $\Psi$  is the ONLY ONE who will wash us, and make us pure. HE will have this ancient servant David return and be king over us back in Israel forever. And there will be a new temple where  $\Psi$ , our only TRUE Father will be with us. Read all that in Ezekiel chapter 37 and Malachi chapter 3 or 4, depending on which version book you're using.
